

Contents

EDITORIAL

BÉNÉDICTE LEDENT 1

INTERVIEW

Dancing in the Dark: Caryl Phillips in Conversation with John McLeod 103

ARTICLES:

CARYL PHILLIPS, A Familial Conversation 3

JOHN MCLEOD, 'Between two waves': Caryl Phillips and Black Britain 9

ABIGAIL WARD, An Outstretched Hand: Connection and Affiliation in Crossing the River 20

ANDREW WARNES, Enemies Within: Diaspora and Democracy in Crossing the River and A Distant Shore 33

STEPHEN CLINGMAN, 'England Has Changed':
Questions of National Form in A Distant Shore 46

KATHIE BIRAT, 'Really no more than a report on one man's way of seeing':
Caryl Phillips's Non-fictional Works 59

BÉNÉDICTE LEDENT, Caryl Phillips and the Caribbean as Multicultural Paradigm 74

LOUISE YELIN, 'Living State-side': Caryl Phillips and the United States 85

VANESSA GARCIA, The Almost-Miseducation of Vanessa Garcia 115

REVIEWS 118

NOTES ON CONTRIBUTORS 122